What will an all-botanical & all-vegetable oil soap do for my skin and hair?

1. Your hair and skin will be clean, without stripping away all your body’s protective sebum oil, as do most regular soaps and shampoos. The jojoba oil and shea butter in Fernwood products help replenish your body’s sebum oil. You’ll notice healthy, flexible skin and hair.

2. Your skin will feel smooth and refreshed.

3. Your body will not feel like you’ve just been subjected to a bad chemistry experiment!

4. You will have taken one small step on the road to a more natural lifestyle.

Moisturizing Oils, Waxes and Cremes

Fernwood’s motto is keep it moist, keep it protected, and keep it natural. All of our moisturizers, waxes and cremes use distilled water, natural preservatives (we like grapefruit seed) and NO BEESWAX.

Olive Creme

A lighter weight version for less dry skin. in lavender only, leaves the skin feeling smooth while helping re-moisturize.

Price: $7.00 / 2 oz.

Welcome to Fernwood!

AN ENVIRONMENTAL FOCUS

At Fernwood, we’ve been making quality handcrafted soap and fine botanical products for skin and hair for over two decades. That’s a lot of soap, as well as a lot of healthy skin and hair! Keeping with our tradition, we are proud to introduce our Spring and Summer 2002 line of products. Never ones to forget our heritage, we are once again focused on nature and our environment. All of our products are 100% vegetable. If you can’t pronounce an ingredient, don’t worry—you won’t find it in any of our products.

THINK BOTANICAL

Today, many manufacturers of soaps, shampoos, and conditioners enjoy calling a product Natural and Organic, thereby confusing man consumers with borderline definitions and slick copy manipulation. By their manufacturer’s definition, Natural means anything that occurs in our world that can be used to make a product. By definition, they are indeed correct. Organic actually can mean (by definition) any compound that contains carbon. Well, that can mean nearly everything! In fact, the crude oil feedstock that these products use in their formulation meet the dictionary definitions of natural and organic.

Aromatherapy Oils
We offer the fine quality oils we use in all our products, at their full strength and potency. Many herb shops and health related stores reduce and cut the strength of the oils they sell. In general, we recommend using these oils in a solution of water or neutral oil at no more than 3%. The exception to this would be tea tree oil which, when applied directly to athlete’s foot or to a cut or wound, serves as a bactericide. Price $6.00 per 1/2 oz.
